

TEXAS HIGH SPEED RAIL & TRANSPORTATION CORP.

The Future of Transportation and Economic Development along the South Central High-Speed Rail Corridor

Description: Resolution Expressing Appreciation to the County of Pulaski, AR.

WHEREAS, The Texas High Speed Rail & Transportation Corporation (THSRTC) is a not-for-profit, tax exempt corporation dedicated to bringing together specific regions of the State of Texas in a grassroots, collective effort to improve multi-modal surface transportation and bring high-speed rail to the State of Texas; and

WHEREAS, The County of Pulaski is strategically located on the federally designated South Central High-Speed Rail Corridor.

WHEREAS, The City of College Station is serving as the host of the THSRTC 2008 winter quarterly meeting.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE TEXAS HIGH SPEED RAIL AND TRANSPORTATION CORPORATION:

THAT The THSRTC expresses its sincere appreciation and gratitude to the City of College Station, TX for its dedication of valuable time and resources in facilitating the THSRTC Quarterly Meeting.

THAT The THSRTC continues to educate, brief and advocate for the Texas T-Bone alignment which would provide valuable and unprecedented multi-modal connectivity to the City of College Station and other THSRTC member cities by bringing to Texas the first truly high speed rail network in the United States.

CONSIDERED AND APPROVED BY THE TEXAS HIGH SPEED RAIL AND TRANSPORTATION CORPORATION at its winter quarterly meeting hosted by the City of College Station, TX, this 9th day of December, A.D. 2008.

ATTESTED BY:

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Robert Eckels". The signature is written in a cursive style and is positioned above a horizontal line.

Robert Eckels
Chairman
Texas High Speed Rail and Transportation Corporation